THE COMPANY HE KEPT

Got Henry in the Lock-up on Sunday.

Officer Scott ran into a crowd of gamblers yesterday afternoon out near the old cotton mill. Several negroes were in the crowd and two of them were pitching dice for a pint of whiskey. Just as one was pulling the whiskey from his pocket, officer Scott walked up to the door. There was a break for the door on the opposite side of the house and before Mr. Scott could collect his thoughts negroes were going into nearby woods at a rapid rate. When the dust cleared away Henry Leggin stood in the middle of the floor "whence all but him had fled." Henry swore by all that was good and bad that he had not been gambling, but officer Scott, acting on Henry's former record and judging him by the company he kept, provided a pair of bracelets and brought him up to the lock-up. Henry was convicted of gambling at the last term of court and sentenced to six months on the county roads, but bought his time. He now thinks he will have to buy it again.

A BEAUTIFUL DRIVE.

The Improvement Of The Battle Ground Road.

A drive over that part of the Battle Ground road recently graded by the convicts, when compared with the old road, sufficient to convince everybody of the economy in establishing and maintaining good roads. The crooked, rough and steep road down the cemetery hill has been replaced by a graceful curve of easy grade. It will positively make you feel good to go out and look at it.

It is a most beautiful road, broad enough for two vehicles to drive abreast and turn with ease, while for wheeling it is away beyond anything we have had.

To the energy and perseverance of those who first took hold of the road improvement matter we feel greatly indebted. The work already done clearly demonstrates the wisdom of the move, and from all over the county now comes the cry: We want our roads worked.

Take This Chance, Boys.

Why not get Greensboro and Charlotte football teams to play a game here during the tobacco fair. A member of the Greensboro team was here yesterday and says that the Greensboro boys would be glad to come here and play the Charlotte team. If the Charlotte boys cannot come the Greensboro boys are willing to play with Oak Ridge, Guilford College or the University teams.—Winston Journal.

Here's a chance. Our boys are practicing every afternoon now and are making good progress. By the time the tobacco fair comes off (Nov. 2, 3 and 4th) Greensboro will be ready to win some victories and this is the time and place to make a "rep." Thousands of people attend this fair and will witness the game and the football teams that play there will be talked of far and near. Challenge one of the above teams, boys.

A Jealous Man's Crime.

W. H. Holleman, assistant postmaster at Apex, was tried before U. S. Commissioner Nichols at Raleigh Saturday on the charges of detaining and opening mail matter and of sending obscene matter through the mails. He was bound over to Federal court on both charges.

The mail intercepted was correspondence between Arthur Edwards, of Cary and Miss Willie Hicks, of Holly Springs. Miss Hicks is a cousin of Holleman and he being infatuated with her was jealous of the attention paid her by young Edwards. His jealousy led him to intercept and read their letters which had to pass through the Apex office. He finally became so bold that he stopped one of Miss Hicks letters and wrote one in its stead. He then wrote one himself in which he called Edwards some very ugly names.

The case was worked up by Inspector Gregory, of this city, and the chain of evidence seems to be complete.

Likes Greensboro.

Mr. J. E. Alderman, a native of Sampson county, but recently of Davie, is in the city this afternoon looking for a residence with a view to locating here for the practice of his profession—the law.

Thank You.

Greensboro is making an effort to own and control her own electric light plant and water works system. We are glad to see Greensboro taking this progressive step and hope she will have better luck than Durham.—Durham Herald.

SOLDIERS ON THE WAR PATH.

Raleigh the Scene of a Small Skirmish.

TWO WHITE MEN WERE HURT.

The Number of Negroes Hurt Not Known, As Their Friends Carried Them Away.

Special to the Telegram.

Raleigh, Sept. 19.—A crowd of soldiers who were drinking in East Raleigh yesterday afternoon got in a row with negroes and a reckless fight followed. The combatants separated and after a time the fight was renewed and about forty shots were fired. Two white men were shot—one in the calf of his leg and the other in the finger. The number of negroes hurt is at present unknown, as their friends carried them off.

Colonel Burgwyn immediately ordered all soldiers back to the camp and Mayor Russ addressed the crowd. By five o'clock perfect quiet had been restored. Arrests will follow.

"Resolved, second, That we pledge the support of the republican party of Orange county to the Hon. Spencer B. Adams for judge, and hereby instruct our chairman and county executive committee to place no other 'Adams ticket' in Orange.

"Resolved third, That we denounce the 'powers' that be for using their influence to thwart the will of the people in the fifth congressional district and their effort to humiliate and defeat that gallant fighter of democracy, the true and tried republican, Hon. Thomas Settle"—Special to Charlotte Observer.

A Deceived Wife.

I don't suppose my wife'll speak to me again for a week. Why? About a month ago I bought a new razor without letting her know it, and since then she's kept on ripping seams with the old one. When she found out last night how she had been fooled her consternation was really pitiful.—Cleveland Leader.

FUSION JUDGE DRUNK.

Judge Norwood Cusses Out Russell the Kusser.

Windsor, N. C., Sept. 17.—The people of Bertie, and especially the good people of Windsor, were treated Thursday to the degrading and humiliating sight of seeing one of the Superior court judges of this fusion-cursed state of ours drive through their county and principal town, Windsor, their county seat, so beastly drunk that he did not know or care whether he was the Hon. W. L. Norwood, judge of the Twelfth district of North Carolina, or not.

Judge Norwood arrived at Aulander early in the morning and was soon in the pitiful predicament of being unable to navigate, and was assisted by the agent of Aulander in procuring conveyance to Windsor, where he arrived about 1:30 o'clock, so drunk, he and his driver, that they drove through the town to all hotels and kept traveling until they reached the river, and could go no further, and of course turned and came back.

Some friend seeing that it was Judge Norwood, had them stopped at the hotel and helped take him out of the buggy and carried him to a room where he was looked after, and by careful nursing and good treatment, was brought around all right so as to be able to convene court Thursday morning, though, it must be said, he was not at all himself, and his charge to the grand jury, consisting of twelve white men and six negroes, covered every phase of the criminal law, from the highest crime of treason to a common ordinary drunk, and if his honor's charge is carried out to the letter we may look for a true bill against his honor, which would have to wait till he was impeached or his term of office expired, and then could be taken up and disposed of as the case might demand. His conduct was very ridiculous at Aulander, and his compliments were paid to his Excellency Governor Russell, in very strong language indeed, so strong that some gentleman asked his honor why he voted for such a man, and Judge Norwood replied that it was "none of his damned business."—Special to News-Observer.

TROOPS ORDERED TO MANILA.

ESTERHAZY IN LONDON.

He is Credited With Making Some Remarkable Statements

London, Sept. 18.—The Observer this morning states that Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy has been in London for the past ten days. The fact, the paper says, is known to very few here, and it is not suspected in Paris.

He is occupying a flat near St James street, and as he has shaved off his moustache, it is not easy to recognize him. He says what he did was in obedience to blind and brutal orders.

"If I were ordered to take a gun and shoot my own brother I would do so without hesitation," said Count Esterhazy. He added that out of the 1000 documents in the Dreyfus dossier, approximately 600 were forged and that he was prepared to show by whom and in what circumstances the forgeries were committed.

STRAINED ARGUMENT.

Some of our contemporaries are straining themselves until they are getting red in the face trying to create a popular storm of indignation against Dr. Kilgo on account of the "diamond ring episode." The recent certificate signed by a long list of the best and most intelligent and most respectable ladies and gentlemen of Roxboro that they heard and took no exceptions to any of his remarks seems to have enraged the enemies of President Kilgo almost beyond the point of endurance.

If Dr. Kilgo used the exact words attributed to him—"That the average woman can be led any where with a diamond ring" it is grossly unreasonable to suppose that those words were used in the perverted and distorted sense in which they are being presented to the public. In view of the fact that respectable, educated and intelligent men and women "took no exceptions" to anything he said, is it not more reasonable to suppose that if the words were used as quoted that it was in illustration of the fact that fashion—light and frivolous fashion—personal ornamentation of any kind, was wielding a most powerful influence over woman?

We have heard it declared by ministers in Greensboro, from their pulpits, that these things were carrying thousands of church members to hell. Yet there has been no outburst of indignation against the preacher. We don't believe that any man who is unbiased and possessing a sane mind believes in the construction placed upon these words by those who are trying to wreck Trinity College by vicious attacks upon its President.

It is noted that the perverters do not give the slightest clue to the point the speaker was making. Many a man has tumbled down the smutty walls of eternal damnation in an effort to grasp a few paltry dollars—often a much less amount than the price of a "diamond ring." Many preachers, bold and fearless men of God, accuse professing Christians, members of the church, of worshipping dollars instead of God. Isn't that a grave charge? Yet, it is true.

And in the name of common sense, if high-toned and intelligent ladies who heard the lecture, took no exceptions, why should a lot of men who did not hear it, feel indignation and fume and boil so persistently? The answer is that Trinity College must be damned for accepting Duke's money—trust money—blood money—and if it can't be done by fair means it must be foul.

There are men now living in this state who have a vivid recollection of the terrible conflict poor Dr. Braxton Craven was called on to endure. He had far worse things said of him than Dr. Kilgo has had. Dr. Craven was bitterly and persistently fought by Rev. Dr. Deems, one of the brightest and brainiest men who was ever honored by the Methodist church in this state. Yet Dr. Deems failed and left the state to form and establish the Church of the Strangers in New York. The conflict went on and Braxton Craven was hounded to his grave. Dr. Crowell refused to withstand the persecution and resigned and left the state. And the end is not yet.

The democrats of Wilson county have nominated ex-Judge H. G. Connor for the State Senate. We note also the nomination of Capt. R. B. Glenn, of Winston, for the same position from the Forsyth, Davidson and Rowan district. With such men as these, if elected, the next legislature will be the ablest which has ever convened in the capitol at Raleigh. Hon. John C. Thomas, of Davidson, is Mr. Glenn's running mate, the district being entitled to two senators.

Poor Judge Norwood! Drunk again and a cussin' on the streets. Only last week he was adjudged to be entitled to the office of judge, which title was in question on account of an agreement of some sort that he would quit drinking. Elsewhere we reprint a special from Windsor, Bertie county to the News and Observer, which tells the disgusting story.

We are in hearty sympathy with the movement to issue bonds to complete Greensboro's sewerage system. We have reached the point where it will be impossible to maintain our good health record unless this is done. We can't afford to longer neglect it.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

"THE DEAD ALIVE."

Marion Grace Perkins Returns Home in Good Health.

Middleboro, Mass., Sept. 17.—The supposed victim of the Bridgeport, Conn., murder, Miss Marion Grace Perkins arrived at her home this afternoon in perfect health to the great joy of the family and unbounded astonishment of the entire community. Her father was not in town, for at the time of his daughter's arrival, he was on his way back from Bridgeport, Conn., with the grewsome remains which he had identified as those of Grace, and for which the funeral arrangements, including the digging of the grave had already been completed. Miss Perkins came from Providence, R. I., and was accompanied by her lover, Charles Bourne, and at first it was stated that the couple had been married. This was afterward denied by young Bourne's uncle. Just across the street from the Perkins house is a little cemetery, and only this morning in response to the request of the uncle of Mrs. Perkins, a grave had been dug by the sexton in the family lot, and the new earth thrown up beside it could be plainly seen from the house. Half an hour after Miss Perkins' arrival home a local undertaker wagon drove up to the house, and it was the coffin which had been ordered by the family. The funeral arrangements had even gone so far that the family minister had been asked to conduct the services.

The Chicago post office is to have a new permanent employe in the person of a physician at a salary of $1,700 per year. He will be stationed at the main office for the purpose of examining employes who report themselves as being sick; and it is expected that he will make a large saving to the government in salaries, as some of the employes report themselves as being incapacitated when they are able to perform their duties. On the other hand, the employes of the post office may be spared severe cases of illness by receiving prompt treatment.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. Howard Gardner.

Londoners are rightfully coming to the conclusion that the practice on the part of visitors to Westminster Abbey of leaving their cards upon the memorials to noted personages, should be stopped. It was in sufficiently bad taste for such visitors to leave cards merely bearing their names, but they are now beginning to add self-advertising postscripts on the bits of paste-board. A card left recently on the tomb of Andre announced that the person who left it was "nee Beatrice Benedict Arnold;" that she "detests" the memory of her ancestor, but "reverses" that of Andre.

"Admiral Dewey is obliged to ask his own government for an additional cruiser and battleship," says the Detroit Free Press, "as the protocol has shut off his source of supply."

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. SICK OR WELL, A RUSH
NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago
de Cuba were all heroes. Their heroic efforts in getting ammunition and rations to the front saved the day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea, in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

London spicures are said to have discovered a new delicacy in the shape of kangaroo tails. No member of fashionable circles can hope to be considered quite up to the mark unless he manifest an enthusiastic taste for that edible. The tails are stewed and flavored strongly with sherry, and make their appearance on the dining tables of clubs and swell restaurants as an entree.

Another Excursion.

A colored excursion from Greensboro to Mount Airy left here about nine o'clock this morning with a fair crowd on board. Watermelon time is about over now, however, and it is a little late in the season to run a big colored excursion. But the average negro forgets everything when an excursion comes along. We heard a gentleman remark this morning that he saw three of his tenants on the excursion who had declared that they were unable to pay their rent last week. "Such is life."

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.
